

Terms of Use of the Library of the Staatsgalerie Stuttgart

Research

The library inventories dating from 1999 (year of publication) and later can be researched online in the electronic catalogue (OPAC). The publications dating from up to and including 1998 can be found in the library card catalogue.

Use

The library is a reference library; it does not lend out books. It is structured as an open-access library according to subject groups (individual artists, inventory catalogues, exhibition catalogues, auction catalogues, art-historical literature, reference works, magazines).

Visitors can use the library by appointment. The required literature will be retrieved by the library staff and placed at your disposal.

It is possible to assemble a set of reference material for a certain period.

Copies and scans can be made. Please treat the books and magazines with care. The copyright regulations must be observed.

Our staff return the media to their place after use. When you are finished, please leave the books on one of the two book trolleys at the entrance to the library or, in the Department of Prints, Drawings and Photographs, on top of the card catalogue.

Rules of conduct

Eating, drinking and smoking are not permitted in the library.

Please follow the instructions of the library staff.

If you have any questions or problems, please speak to a member of the library staff.

By using the library you are accepting the above conditions.
